I cant make a flawless rendition of an iconoclast icon but to share my excitement towards Sir G as whenever i had his eating glimpse i feel fine by myself to be a part of most equipped and prestigious institution.

Not so much i interacted with him, However when i encountered, His gestures meaningfully with his smiley face. He's compassionate and empathetic with his students.

"An indefatigable researcher who won't left his vision for adversity. Neither mishaps never pushed him down nor others people opposed behavioural environment affects his persistence in his mission."
